8:30 – 9:45 AM Super Panel
– Working toward a Stronger Economy for Better Quality of Life in Riverside and San Bernardino Counties
Room 302

This panel discussion will include expert panelists from across the private and public sector to discuss our region's challenges and highlight current strategies to better our region's quality of life. Panelists will tackle issues such as educational attainment, the continuing effects of mortgage crisis, and future of healthcare, high-speed rail, access-to-capital, and other major issues facing the Inland Empire. The goal of the discussion is not only to raise issues, but to show how these issues are interlinked and in need of Inland Empire leaders and residents to create united strategies to solve our region's challenges.

Moderator: Paul Granillo, President & CEO Inland Empire Economic Partnership (IEEP)

9:45 – 10:45 AM Transportation & Goods Movement
Room 302

Riverside and San Bernardino Counties will continue to lead the country and state in population growth for the next twenty years, which raises the question of what needs to be done to insure our region's infrastructure is adequate to the demand. Our region is also a high demand area for the movement of goods through and within the Inland Empire. How do Inland Empire leaders balance the potential of thousands of new jobs with the quality of life impacts associated with the sector? Our panelist within their own expert fields will highlight current strategies to provide sustainable infrastructure growth and the next steps needed for the Inland Empire to prepare for additional 1.8 million residents.
